ALTERNATE TRANSPORTATION INFORMATION: The Little Miami Local School District needs the following information for transportation and other important records. If your child(ren) will be served by a child care provider at an address other than your legal residence, the information below must be completed by the parent/guardian and updated each year. This procedure will ensure the continuity of transportation services. If your child care provider changes, a Change of Child Care form must be completed by the parent/guardian. Change of Child Care forms are available at each school building. Elementary students will be transported to individual child care proviers who live within their neighborhood school boundaries.
