Dinner will include spaghetti and homemade meat sauce, salad, bread sticks, a drink, and cookies.

Grammy nominee Zak Morgan's unique brand of children's music delivers songs and poems with wit and charm that inspire and tickle the funny bones of children and adults alike.

When he is not writing and recording, Zak performs family concerts throughout the country. His live performances are always filled with laughter and warmth as he encourages children to read, imagine, and believe in themselves.

Morgan sounds a bit like Cat Stevens, and his storytelling is an inspired cross between Dr. Seuss-style word games and the sly, edginess of Shel Silverstein. In short, it's children's music that adults can love.

Morgan has released three critically acclaimed records for children and was nominated for a GRAMMY in 2003 - a rare feat for an independent artist. Morgan recently released his third record, The Candy machine, a collaborative concept album with renowned bass Guitarist Davis LaBruyere.

Dinner tickets are now available for purchase.

Adults and children over 5 are $5. Family price (5 people or more) is $20.
